

Australian Mounted Games Association

Code of Behaviour

10 January 2009

General Code of Behaviour

As a member of The Australian Mounted Games Association (AMGA), a member association or an affiliated club or a person required to comply with AMGA's member protection policy, you must meet the following requirements in regard to your conduct during any activity held or sanctioned by AMGA, a member association or an affiliated club and in any role you hold within AMGA, a member association or an affiliated club:

1. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of others.
2. Be fair, considerate and honest in all dealing with others.
3. Be professional in, and accept responsibility for, your actions.
4. Make a commitment to providing quality service.
5. Be aware of, and maintain an uncompromising adherence to, AMGA's standards, rules, regulations and policies.
6. Operate within the rules of the sport including national and international guidelines which govern AMGA, the member associations and the affiliated clubs.
7. Do not use your involvement with AMGA, a member association or an affiliated club to promote your own beliefs, behaviours or practices where these are inconsistent with those of AMGA, a member association or an affiliated club.
8. Demonstrate a high degree of individual responsibility especially when dealing with persons under 18 years of age, as your words and actions are an example.
9. Avoid unaccompanied and unobserved activities with persons under 18 years of age, wherever possible.
10. Refrain from any form of harassment of others.
11. Refrain from any behaviour that may bring AMGA, a member association or an affiliated club into disrepute.
12. Provide a safe environment for the conduct of the activity.
13. Show concern and caution towards others who may be sick or injured.
14. Be a positive role model.
15. Understand the repercussions if you breach, or are aware of any breaches of, this code of behaviour.

Administrator Code of Behaviour

In addition to AMGA's General Code of Behaviour, you must meet the following requirements in regard to your conduct during any activity held by or under the auspices of AMGA, a member association or an affiliated club and in your role as an administrator of AMGA, a member association or an affiliated club:

1. Resolve conflicts fairly and promptly through established procedures.
2. Maintain strict impartiality.
3. Be aware of your legal responsibilities

Official Code of Behaviour

In addition to AMGA's General Code of Behaviour, you must meet the following requirements in regard to your conduct during any activity held or sanctioned by AMGA, a member association or an affiliated club and in your role as an official appointed by AMGA, a member association or an affiliated club:

1. Place the safety and welfare of the players/participants above all else.
2. Accept responsibility for all actions taken.
3. Be impartial.
4. Avoid any situation which may lead to a conflict of interest.
5. Be courteous, respectful and open to discussion and interaction.
6. Value the individual in sport.

Coach Code of Behaviour

In addition to AMGA's General Code of Behaviour, you must meet the following requirements in regard to your conduct during any activity held or sanctioned by AMGA, a member association or an affiliated club and in your role as a coach appointed by AMGA, a member association or an affiliated club:

1. Do not tolerate acts of aggression.
2. Provide feedback to players and other participants in a manner sensitive to their needs. Avoid overly negative feedback.
3. Recognise players' rights to consult with other coaches and advisers. Cooperate fully with other specialists (for example, sports scientists, doctors and physiotherapists).
4. Treat all players fairly within the context of their sporting activities, regardless of gender, race, place of origin, athletic potential, colour, sexual orientation, religion, political beliefs, socio-economic status and other conditions.
5. Encourage and facilitate players' independence and responsibility for their own behaviour, performance, decisions and actions.
6. Involve the players in decisions that affect them.
7. Encourage players to respect one another and to expect respect for their worth as individuals regardless of their level of play.
8. Ensure that the tasks and/or training set are suitable for age, experience, ability, and physical and psychological conditions of the players.
9. Ensure any physical contact with players is appropriate to the situation and necessary for the player's skill development.
10. Be acutely aware of the power that you as a coach develop with your players in the coaching relationship and avoid any sexual intimacy with players that could develop as a result.
11. Avoid situations with your players that could be construed as compromising.
12. Actively discourage the use of performance enhancing drugs, and the use of alcohol, tobacco and illegal substances.
13. Do not exploit any coaching relationship to further personal, political or business interests at the expense of the best interest of your players.
14. Accept and respect the role of officials in ensuring that competitions are conducted fairly and according to established rules.
15. Know and abide by rules, regulations and standards, and encourage players to do likewise. Accept both the letter and the spirit of the rules.
16. Be honest and ensure that qualifications are not misrepresented.

Player Code of Behaviour

In addition to AMGA's General Code of Behaviour, you must meet the following requirements in regard to your conduct during any activity held or sanctioned by AMGA, a member association or an affiliated club and in your role as a player/participant in any activity held by or under the auspices of AMGA, a member association or an affiliated club:

1. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of fellow players, coaches, officials and spectators.
2. Do not tolerate acts of aggression.
3. Respect the talent, potential and development of fellow players and competitors.
4. Care for and respect the equipment provided to you as part of your program.
5. Be frank and honest with your coach concerning illness and injury and your ability to train fully within the program requirements.
6. At all times avoid intimate relationships with your coach.
7. Conduct yourself in a professional manner relating to language, temper and punctuality.
8. Maintain high personal behaviour standards at all times.
9. Abide by the rules and respect the decision of the official, making all appeals through the formal process and respecting the final decision.
10. Be honest in your attitude and preparation to training. Work equally hard for yourself and your team.
11. Cooperate with coaches and staff in development of programs to adequately prepare you for competition at the highest level.

Parent/Guardian Code of Behaviour

As a parent/guardian of a player/participant in any activity held by or under the auspices of AMGA, a member association or an affiliated club, you must meet the following requirements in regard to your conduct during any such activity or event:

1. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of others.
2. Remember that your child participates in sport for their own enjoyment, not yours.
3. Focus on your child's efforts and performance rather than winning or losing.
4. Never ridicule or yell at your child and other children for making a mistake or losing a competition.
5. Show appreciation for good performance and skilful plays by all players (including opposing players).
6. Demonstrate a high degree of individual responsibility especially when dealing with or in the vicinity of persons under 18 years of age, as your words and actions are an example.
7. Respect officials' decisions and teach children to do likewise.
8. Do not physically or verbally abuse or harass anyone associated with the sport (player, coach, umpire and so on).
9. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
10. Be a positive role model.
11. Understand the repercussions if you breach, or are aware of any breaches of, this code of behaviour.

Spectator Code of Behaviour

As a spectator in any activity held by or under the auspices of AMGA a member association or an affiliated club, you must meet the following requirements in regard to your conduct during any such activity or event:

1. Respect the decisions of officials and teach young people to do the same.
2. Never ridicule or scold a young player for making a mistake. Positive comments are motivational.
3. Condemn the use of violence in any form, whether it is by other spectators, coaches, officials or players.
4. Show respect for your team's opponents. Without them there would be no game.
5. Do not use violence, harassment or abuse in any form (that is, do not use foul language, sledge or harass players, coaches, officials or other spectators).
6. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.

Alcohol Policy

AMGA is committed to providing a safe sporting and working environment for every person involved in AMGA activities. This policy applies to any person who is engaged in any AMGA activity.

1. Riding members involved in any AMGA activity:
 - (a) Consumption of alcohol is absolutely prohibited for any riding members who have not attained the legal drinking age. Consumption of alcohol by minors will result in immediate and automatic disqualification from the event.
 - (b) Consumption of alcohol is not encouraged, but if consumed by riders of legal age should be discreet and with due regard to their responsibility to the AMGA and other participants.
 - (c) All riders agree to submit to a breathalyser if requested to do so by the referee and if a breathalyser is available. Any rider that tests positive or refuses to submit to a breathalyser test will be immediately and automatically disqualified from the event.
 - (d) Where a breathalyser is not available and it is in the opinion of the referee or organising committee that any rider is under the influence of alcohol at any time during an AMGA competition, the rider will be immediately and automatically disqualified from the competition. The referee or organising committee will make their decision based on duty of care.
 - (e) Riding members representing their association at national and international events will comply with the above requirements and in addition comply with any additional requirements of the team coach/manager. This may include prohibition of alcohol prior to and during an event.

2. Team Coaches/managers
 - (a) Consumption of alcohol by team coaches/managers is not encouraged, but if it is consumed they should be discreet and with due regard to their responsibility to the AMGA.
 - (b) Team coaches/managers must provide an example of behaviour that is accepted by the AMGA.

3. Other Officials, Parents, Volunteers and Supporters
 - (a) Consumption of alcohol at AMGA functions, activities or competitions is not encouraged. If persons do so, this should be done discretely and with due regard to the safety and care of riders and horses and the comfort and safety of other persons present.
 - (b) All persons attending AMGA activities are encouraged to be positive roll models for minors and junior members.
 - (c) The provision of alcohol to minors is illegal and any adult providing alcohol to juniors will be requested to leave the venue immediately.
